

|                                                    |
|----------------------------------------------------|
| Questions Submitted on the Bigfork Stormwater RFQ: |
|----------------------------------------------------|

1) Question:

20% of the scoring criteria is for “Prior experience with non-development related stormwater projects.” Can you provide some definition/description regarding the term “non-development”?

Answer:

The term “non-development” related stormwater project experience refers to experience with existing urban stormwater systems and or new systems developed and or installed for municipalities or unincorporated communities that are not related to new subdivision development.